

During the Autumn term, we will trial 'First Sunday', a café-style evening service. The heart is to build community across the generations while exploring what it means to be salt and light in the world. Would be great to see you there!

*If you'd like to find out more or be involved in welcoming or serving refreshments, please chat to Jack Robson or Sarah Noble.

We will watch Selma, the story based on Martin Luther King Jnr's epic struggle to implement the rights of black people to vote.

October

Wednesday 4th October - Witness and patience in exile

Natan Mladin from the religion and society think tank, Theos, will be speaking about how we can follow Jesus in a politically correct society.

Thursday 12th October - Praise in warfare

An evening of praise where will think about how praise can strengthen our faith, disarm our enemy, and glorify our God

Monday 16th October - Theology of exile

Going deeper into the bible with Graham Sharp.

Friday 20th October - Eating together with glad and sincere hearts

(start time 7.00pm)

Bring something for a shared supper and listen to some stories of how people you know came to faith.

Tuesday 31st October - We grieve, but not as those that have no hope

Peter Jackson, who runs courses on bereavement at Millmead Baptist Church, Guildford, will be coming to talk about how the church can create an environment that is more sensitive to those who are bereaved.

November

Wednesday 8th November - Imaging hope while in exile

A stimulating evening with Karen Case-Green, co-author of Imaging the Story, as she helps us see how imagination can help us in tough times.

Thursday 16th November - Radical living

An evening with Julia and Graham looking at what the Bible says about radical living and its possible implications for the life in the 21st Century.

Tuesday 21st November - Theology of exile

Going deeper into the bible with Graham Sharp.

Friday 24th November - Eating together with glad and sincere hearts

(start time 7.00pm)

Bring something for a shared supper and listen to some stories of how people you know came to faith.

Tuesday 28th November - Exploring prophetic voices in the secular songs of exile

Dave Wright will explore some of the lyrics in secular songs that point to God and show how they have the power to draw us into worship. We will listen to these songs and may even have the chance to sing some of them. Feel free to contact David and let him know your favourites!

December

Thursday 7th December Singing the songs of Zion in a strange land

Come and enjoy singing together, whether you are proficient and sing in part or just love singing.

Wednesday 13th December 'He left his heavenly home'

An evening of prayer and praise led by Elaine as we prepare for Christmas.

January

Friday 5th January Our mouths were filled with laughter

Humour is such an important thing – laughter, according to Nehemiah, gives us the strength to keep going. This will be an evening of joy and laughter.
